A012 Firearms Registration and Licensing

Agency: 240 - Department of Licensing

Expected Results

As of 5/9/2006

Activity Version: 2E - Agency recast for 06 supplemental

The Firearms Program measures its success by: processing all concealed pistol, alien firearm and firearm dealer licenses within three business days after receipt of the document; processing court conviction notices within three to five business days after the receipt of a document; completing all certifications (verification of the accuracy of the information contained in the firearms database) within one business day; citizens receive their license or handgun within the time frame required, supporting their constitutional right to bear arms. Law enforcement is able to ensure that only those individuals who can lawfully possess a firearm receive licenses, contributing to public and officer safety. The Department trains over 300 law enforcement record specialists and law enforcement officers statewide each year on how to conduct criminal history background checks on license applicants and procedures to properly complete license documents. Over $900,000 is collected each fiscal year that is deposited into the General Fund-State.

Agency: 100 - Office of Attorney General

Expected Results

Because of the Sexually Violent Predator Unit, the most dangerous and violent sexual predators in the state are detained, evaluated, and treated. They are held until they no longer constitute a threat. Consequently, fewer people are victimized, and the public is better protected from those who are most likely to reoffend.

A003 Criminal Investigation and Prosecution

Agency: 100 - Office of Attorney General

Expected Results

This unit assures that where a prosecution can not proceed because of conflict or lack of experience, there is a competent, highly-skilled prosecutor to represent the people. On occasion, the local prosecutor may not be able, or may refuse to act, and if so requested, the existence of the unit guarantees that matters can be prosecuted even if the local prosecutor does not wish them to be. This unit raises the level of prosecution and this results in greater public protection.

A011 CSD Strengthening Criminal Justice Response to Victims of Crime

Agency: 103 - Community, Trade & Economic Develop

Expected Results

The program will provide five regional gatherings for members of the tribal court, county court systems, and community organizations to discuss methods of promoting protection of Native and non-Native American victims of domestic violence. Five tribes will receive technical assistance in developing tribal coordinated community response and domestic violence codes. Uniform and enforceable domestic violence protection orders will be provided for all conflicting orders issued by the municipal, district, and superior courts in Kitsap County.
